(Unofficial translation by Dr. Susan Hattis Rolef)

- |  |     |  |
|--|-----|--|
| The nature   | 1.  | The Knesset is the house of representatives of the State   |
| The location   | 2.  | The seat of the Knesset is Jerusalem   |
| The composition  | 3.  | Upon its election the Knesset shall consist of one hundred and twenty members.   |
| Electoral system   | 4.  | The Knesset shall be elected in general, national, direct, equal, secret, and proportional elections. This article may only be changed by a majority of the Knesset Members.   |
| The right to vote  | 5.  | Every Israeli citizen aged eighteen or over, has the right to vote in elections to the Knesset, unless a court of law has deprived him of this right on the basis of the law. The Elections Law shall determine when a person shall be considered to be eighteen years of age for the purpose of exercising the right to vote in elections to the Knesset.   |
| The right to submit a list of candidates(Amendments Nos.19 & 22) | 5a. | A list of candidates for the Knesset shall be submitted by a party only. The manner of association and registration of parties, and the conditions for submitting a list of candidates shall be determined by law.   |
| The right to be elected(Amendments Nos. 8, 10, 22, 26 & 47)      | 6.  | (a) Every Israeli citizen, who on the day of the submission of a list of candidates that includes his name, is twenty one years old or over, is entitled to be elected to the Knesset, unless a court of law has deprived him of this right by virtue of any law, or that he has been sentenced, in a final verdict, to actual imprisonment for a period of over three months, and on the day of the submission of the list of candidates seven years have not yet gone by since he finished serving his term of imprisonment, or if he has been convicted of a serious terror offence, or a serious security offence, as laid down by law, has been sentenced, in a final verdict, to actual imprisonment for a period of over seven years of | imprisonment, and on the day of the submission of the list of candidates 14 years have not yet gone by since he finished serving his term of imprisonment - unless the Chairman of the Central Elections Committee has determined that the crime for which he was convicted, under the circumstances of the case, does not carry moral turpitude.

- (b) Annulled

- (c) A Knesset candidate, who has been sentence as stated in clause (a), and whose verdict was finalized after the submission of the list of candidates, and before he started serving as a Member of the Knesset, shall be treated as one, who has resigned from the list of candidates in which his name was included, or from his membership in the Knesset, as the case may be, unless the Chairman of the Central Elections Committee has determined that the crime for which he was convicted, under the circumstances of the case, does not carry moral turpitude.

- (d) A decision by the Chairman of the Central Elections Committee in accordance with clauses (a) and (c) shall not be required if the court has ruled, under any law, that under the circumstances of the case, the offence carries moral turpitude.

- (e) For the purpose of this article –

"Actual imprisonment" – the total periods of actual imprisonment, which the convicted person must serve consecutively, even if these were ruled in different sentences, including a suspended sentence that has been activated;

"Offense" – any one of the offences for which he has been sentenced to actual imprisonment.

Qualification to candidacy of a Knesset Member who left his parliamentary group (Amendments Nos. 12, 21 & 36)

6a (a) A Member of the Knesset, who left his parliamentary group, and did not resign from his office soon after his leaving, shall not be included, in the elections to the following Knesset, in a list of candidates submitted by a party that was represented by a parliamentary group in the outgoing Knesset. This provision shall not apply to a parliamentary group that split under circumstances prescribed by law.

(b) For the purpose of this article –

"Leaving a parliamentary group" – including voting in the Knesset plenum not in accordance with the position of the parliamentary group concerning an expression of confidence in the Government, or non-confidence in it. However, voting as stated, shall not be considered as a departure if the Knesset Member did not receive any return for his voting;

"Return" – directly or indirectly, in the form of a promise or a commitment for the future, including a promise for a place on the list of Knesset candidates, or the appointment of the Knesset Member himself, or another person to any position.
